

Lupine Protein

FACT SHEET

Description: Hydrolyzed protein from the seeds of the lupine plant (lupinus) which are high in proteins and contain 35-45% of all the essential amino acids. Lupine cultivation goes way back to ancient Egypt and Greece. Clear yellow to amber liquid, faint herbal odor, water soluble. CAS# not available.

INCI Name: Lupine protein.

Properties: Lupine protein contains a high amount of essential amino acids which provide many benefits and treatment options in the fight against premature aging. Good anti-static, regenerating and conditioning properties.

Use: Add to formulas use as is, usual concentration 2 - 40 %.

Application: Skin and hair care products, sun care & after-sun products, scalp treatments.