Hazardous Ingredient Waiver

By ordering a HazMat ingredient, you, the buyer, must agree to the following:

- You fully understand that this material is considered hazardous by various Authorities (e.g. OSHA, DOT, IATA, FDA) and could cause bodily harm.
- You agree to only use this product for the manufacture of cosmetics and personal care products and will not resell the material or use it for any other purpose.
- You assume all responsibility for its safe use and proper storage.
- You are at least 18 years of age.
- You understand that, based on the amount ordered, there may be additional shipping surcharges due to special packaging, labeling and documentation requirements.
- You understand that HazMat ingredients are shipped only UPS Ground within the US (excluding Hawaii and Alaska) but not any other carriers, and may require signature confirmation upon delivery.
