

Ozokerite Wax

Specification Sheet

Description: Mineral wax consisting of hydrocarbons, originally derived from veins in sandstones. White pastilles, odorless. Insoluble in water & alcohols, soluble in warm oils & other melted waxes. Melting Point: 73-76° C (164-169° F).

CAS: 8021-55-4

INCI Name: Ozokerite

Benefits:

- Provides hardness, gel strength and consistency
- Assures color uniformity in color cosmetics
- Has emulsifying and emollient properties
- Compatible with all kinds of mineral and plant oils and waxes

Use: Add to heated oil phase of formulas. Typical use level 1-20% depending of product and desired viscosity. For external use only.

Applications: All kinds of stick cosmetics (lipstick, lip balm, concealers, deodorants), all kinds of emulsions (creams, lotions).

Country of Origin: USA

Raw material source: Petroleum wax

Manufacture: Ozokerite wax is made from blends of petroleum wax.

Animal Testing: Not animal tested

GMO: GMO-free (does not contain plant-derived components)

Vegan: Does not contain animal-derived components