

Resveratrol Powder

Specification Sheet

Description: Resveratrol is a natural polyphenol and powerful antioxidant. In nature resveratrol is found naturally in small amounts in wine, peanuts, mulberry and knotweed. Produced biotechnologically exactly matching the natural form of resveratrol. Has antioxidant and skin-whitening effects. Purity >99%.

CAS: 501-36-0

INCI Name: Resveratrol

Composition: Resveratrol, Plant Fiber

Appearance: White to off-white, yellowish powder

Benefits:

- Has effective skin-lightening properties and is generally more effective than l-ascorbic acid and kojic acid
- It is fast acting with visible and significant results in only 2 weeks (applied 3 times per day)
- Has been found to reduce the appearance of aging skin due to its good antioxidant effects

Use: Comes in powder form. Add at the end of the formulation process and mixed very well, can also be added to the water phase of a formulas. Can also be added to an already made cream. Typical use level is 1% (1% is the maximum and you will get best results). Can be combined with other skin lighteners. For external use only.

Applications: Skin brightening facial and body care products, anti-age spot creams and serums, anti-aging for even skin tone, toners, sunscreen for UV protection. For best results use 3x daily.

Solubility: Poorly soluble in water (3 mg/100mL) and ethanol (50 mg/mL)

Preservation: Preservative-free

Storage: Store light-protected at a cool and dry place

Country of Origin: China

Raw material source: Yeast and glucose

10800 231st Way NE
Redmond, WA 98053
Phone: 425-292-9502
makingcosmetics.com

Manufacture: Resveratrol is produced biotechnologically by yeast (Saccharomyces cerevisiae) using glucose as substrate.

Animal Testing: Not animal tested

GMO: GMO-free

Vegan: Does not contain animal-derived components

HS Code: 2936270000